PREDICTOR GAMES · LIVE FOR 2026-27

P525 · UPDATE

TL;DR — The World Cup predictor turned into a proper bit of fun this summer (1,859 picks across 104 fixtures, 28 fellas playing all the way to the final), so we're keeping the momentum with two new games for 2026-27 — both live now, both free to play, both sitting under the Predictor tab. Details in the two blocks below. Oh, and Rossini, our new house bot, is playing along — so the running battle all season is fella vs machine.

► The two games at a glance

MATCH OF THE WEEK

One random Premier League or Championship fixture per week. Pick a scoreline before kickoff. Everyone plays, running leaderboard all season.

WEEKLY · QUICK PICK

SEASON CARD

Seven season-long predictions — Champion, top 4, relegated, Golden Boot, Playmaker, first sacked, and who comes up from the Championship. One form, locks 21 Aug.

Match of the Week

Every Friday morning — same time as the match report drops — the app pulls a random game out of the coming weekend's Premier League + Championship fixture list. No favouritism, no algorithm nudging it towards West Ham fixtures because most of us follow them — just a straight-up random draw. You pick a scoreline before kickoff. Everyone else's picks stay hidden until the whistle blows, so no cribbing off whoever went first. Points settle once the fixture is played — most weeks that's Monday morning, but a Tuesday / Wednesday MoW will land later in the week.

Rossini — the house bot

ROSSINI

New name on the picks list. Rossini is a bot — every week he'll drop his own scoreline in alongside the rest of us, hidden under the same as everyone else's until kickoff. The season-long battle we're really watching: can any human keep up with the machine over 38 weeks. Beat him and you get bragging rights that don't need a leaderboard.

WEEKLY RHYTHM

Fri morning

Fixture drops inside the Friday match report. The weekend's MoW is announced in the report body itself — no separate push cutting across your Friday. Rossini's pick lands the same morning. First possible kickoff is Friday night, so no confusion about which weekend it's for.

Fri → kickoff

Picks open — and stay hidden. Tap +/- to set both scores, hit Submit. Everyone else's picks stay under a until kickoff so nobody can copy. Change your mind any time before the whistle.

Kickoff → FT

Locked, picks revealed. Panel opens up — every fella's pick side-by-side (Rossini's included). Awaiting the result.

After the game

Result poll runs against football-data.org, points cascade automatically, "Result in — you got X pts" push fires. Most weeks that's Monday morning; if the MoW happens to be a Tue/Wed midweek game the settle just runs later that week. Season leaderboard shuffles.

Season Card

The season-long predictor. Seven markets, one form, fill it in once. Locks 1h before the PL opener on Fri 21 Aug 19:00 UK, then reopens for a 2-day edit window on 2-4 Sept so you can rework calls after the summer transfer window slams shut. After that, sealed for the year.

THE SEVEN MARKETS

MARKET	PICK	POINTS
Premier League Champion	1 club	10
Top 4 — Places 2 / 3 / 4	3 ordered slots	3 / 1 per slot
Relegated — 18 / 19 / 20	3 ordered slots	3 / 1 per slot
Golden Boot	1 player	10
Playmaker (most assists)	1 player	15

MARKET	PICK	POINTS
First manager sacked	1 manager	10
Championship promoted	3 ordered slots	3 / 1 per slot

Ordered slots: 3 pts for the right team in the right slot, 1 pt for the right team in the wrong slot. Season ceiling before the bonus: 72 pts.

Grand-slam bonus: +25 pts if you somehow call every single market at max points. Basically impossible, but the prize is there. Full-season ceiling: 97 pts.

PICKING

Each market opens a bottom-up picker with a search box and club crests. Clubs are ordered favourites-first; the ~500 PL players are alphabetical — type "hal" for Haaland, "amo" for Amorim. Everything auto-saves as you go — no big Submit button.

WHO PICKED WHO?

Private until lock, public after. Before Fri 21 Aug, only you see your picks — nobody's copying anyone. Once the lock fires, each market gets a N picks chip that opens up every fella's card + a top-3 consensus strip (). All season, the debates keep running.

SEASON TIMELINE

Now → Fri 21 Aug	Card open. Fill in your 7 markets whenever. Bring your best takes.
Fri 21 Aug 19:00	Card locks 1h before the PL opener. Public visibility flips on — everyone can see everyone's picks.
2-4 Sept	Edit window reopens. Two days after the summer transfer window closes. Swap the Golden Boot pick if their move fell through, rethink first-sacked, etc.
Nov onwards	Markets settle rolling. First-sacked usually first, then Championship promoted in May, then Golden Boot / Playmaker / PL winner. Points land as each one resolves.

► How to play — 30 seconds

1. Open the app → tap Predictor on the bottom nav.
2. Two tabs at the top: Match of the Week (default) and Season Card. World Cup archive lives quietly to the right.
3. MoW: tap +/- to set both scores, Submit. Points settle after the game is played.
4. Season Card: tap each of the 7 markets, use the search-y pickers, done. Bring it back before Fri 21 Aug 19:00.
5. Notifications opt-in on the Tonight tab if you haven't already — that's how you'll hear when picks open, lock, and settle.

Free to play. No stakes, no fines for wrong picks. Bragging rights only. If it takes off, we'll talk about a proper stake for 2027-28.
