

WANSTEAD FELLAS

THEME OF THE NIGHT · NEW

P524 · UPDATE

TL;DR — Every Thursday now has a third award alongside MOTM and DOTD: Theme of the Night. Admin sets a themed prompt for the week (tonight's is Kevin Keegan tribute). Vote for the fella who best captured it — same rules as MOTM/DOTD, same ballot, same 10am Friday close. If admin doesn't set a theme in a given week, the award just doesn't appear — it's opt-in per match.

► The three awards

MOTM

Best on the pitch. Goals, defensive stops, keeper heroics — the standout performer of the night.

SINCE DAY ONE

DOTD

The one who deserves a slap. Air-kicks in front of goal, own goals, saying "unlucky" too much.

THEME

Best captures the week's prompt. Whatever admin picks — impression, tribute, celebration, era.

NEW · 23 JUL 2026

► What "theme" means each week

Admin sets a free-text prompt on the Teams tab when publishing the sides — one line, memorable, room for interpretation. A few for the feel:

- Kevin Keegan tribute — bubble perm, one-touch passing, closing eyes on volleys
- Peak dad-strength — the deceptive-shoulder, hooked-boot, refuses-to-die tackle era
- Most Ronaldinho moment — a piece of skill, or the smile that goes with it
- Best celebration — the aeroplane, the sliding knee, the awkward finger-guns
- Grimsby Town circa 2003 — a beautifully bad chip, ideally scored anyway

You'll see the prompt in three places from the moment the teams are published: the "teams ready" push, the Tonight tab strip, and the ballot itself once voting opens.

4 · THE RESULTS AT 10:00 FRIDAY

Voting closes, top vote wins each award. Ties split the honour (same rule as MOTM/DOTD). Theme winner sits alongside the other two in the Match tab and the History log going forward.

► The flow, front to back

Wed evening	Admin sets the theme prompt in the Teams tab, then publishes.
Publish moment	Group gets the "teams are ready" push — theme embedded so it's live in the WhatsApp banter immediately.
Thu 8:00pm	Players arrive at the pitch already knowing what they're being scored on — improv, tribute, dad-mode, whatever it is.
Thu 10:30pm	Voting opens — the ballot on the Match tab now has three slots per player. Cast all three.
Fri 10:00am	Results publish — the awards ping goes out with all three winners; theme winner joins MOTM/DOTD in the record.

► Rules

- Same as MOTM/DOTD — one vote per player, editable until 10am Fri.
- You can vote for yourself. Whether you should is a moral question.
- Ties are shared — if two players tie the vote, both take the award (like MOTM).
- Admin can override the auto-tally same way they can for MOTM/DOTD (the "ADMIN CALL" pill). Reserve for edge cases.
- Opt-in per match — if admin skips the prompt one week (nothing came to mind, or the vibe wasn't right), the whole slot disappears. No pressure to always have a theme.

► Where the "theme ideas" come from

Two channels for now:

- Admin picks it — usually decided Wed evening at team-publish time, sometimes revised on Thu if a better idea lands.
- Group suggests it — nominations in the WhatsApp thread welcomed. If yours gets picked, expect banter.

Coming later. A "Theme history" section on Stats (past prompts + winners), a "Theme Chameleon" badge for anyone who wins 3+, and an in-app suggestion form so the group can drop ideas without cluttering the WhatsApp chat.
